

Non-mobile children and babies under 1 year

NB GPs must NOT be asked to see children for child protection medical examinations

If a formal child protection medical examination is not felt to be needed but it is felt that a medical review is required (eg for confirmation of birthmark) this must be discussed and agreed with the GP prior to attendance